

Cincinnati Asian Art Society

Since 1976, interested collectors and enthusiastic admirers of Asian art have joined the Cincinnati Asian Art Society (CAAS). CAAS provides for the exchange of ideas among people interested in both collecting and appreciating Asian art, focusing on Chinese, Japanese, Korean, South Asian and Southeast Asian art in all media.

For 2020-2021, the Covid-19 virus has required us to change our programming. At this time (August 2020) large gatherings are prohibited and we don't know when the auditoriums at the Cincinnati Art Museum will be available again. We are planning on doing virtual programming from September through December 2020 and after that see what is possible. Because of these challenges, we are offering a reduced membership fee in hopes that we can keep our members until things improve.

Current officers are: Helen Rindsberg, president; Barbara Ramusack, vice-president; Margaret Rhein, secretary; and Nages Shanmugalingam, treasurer. This year's program committee was the CAAS officers, Hou-mei Sung and Ainsley Cameron, Curators at CAM and Board members Julie Desai and Joan and Simon Mudronja.

Membership dues provide for routine administrative expenses, refreshments at receptions, modest stipends for lecturers, and support for the Asian Art Departments at the Cincinnati Art Museum. All dues are fully tax deductible. Please return this form and your dues to our treasurer at the address below.
